Notice Concerning Partial Acquisition of Shares in a Business Partner

V.S. Technology Corporation (the "Company") hereby announces that it has, as of today, entered into a share transfer agreement with Yamaichi Electronics Co., Ltd. ("YEC"), the current shareholder of Koshin Kogaku Co., Ltd. ("KKC"), regarding the partial acquisition of shares in KKC, as described below.

1. Purpose of the Share Acquisition

KKC possesses advanced optical thin-film technology, and our Group has adopted KKC's products, such as filters, into our product lineup in order to enhance the functionality, improve the performance, and expand the applications of our products (machine vision lenses). Through the establishment of a capital relationship with KKC and the further strengthening of the companies' collaborative relationship, the Group expects to generate synergies by expanding sales of product lines that utilize KKC's advanced optical thin-film technologies through the Group's direct sales network for overseas customers. In addition, the Group will work together with KKC to pursue various initiatives aimed at further growth, including the development of new products and the cultivation of new customers.

The Company believes that this transaction will contribute to the realization of its medium- to long-term growth strategy of "providing customers with the products they require in the optimal manner and in the shortest possible time." The Company will continue to pursue initiatives that support this strategy on an ongoing basis.

2. Details of the Share Acquisition

KKC is a consolidated subsidiary of YEC, which owns 100% of KKC's shares prior to the acquisition. Pursuant to the share transfer agreement, The Company will acquire 15% of KKC's shares from YEC. Following the share transfer to The Company, YEC will continue to hold 85% of KKC's shares, and KKC will remain a consolidated subsidiary of YEC.
